

WELCOME TO Noblesville

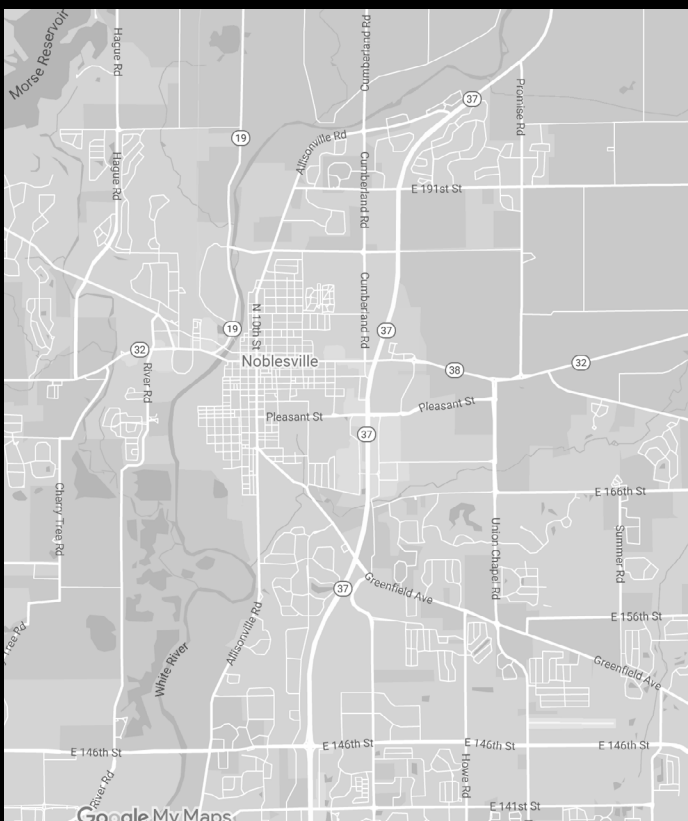

Both hip and historic, Noblesville is a spacious suburb that attracts young and old alike. In the heart of the city lies the Historic Noblesville Square and Noblesville Cultural Arts District, where beautifully preserved historic buildings are now home to boutiques, restaurants, coffee shops, and entertainment. Music, arts, and culture abound from Nickel Plate Arts to the Ruoff Home Mortgage Music Center (forever known to locals as Deer Creek), and access to the outdoors and nature are never-ending.

What the Locals Say

A Thriving City with a Small-Town Feel
Unique small businesses, community holiday celebrations, and historic appeal add to the small-town charm of Noblesville, though the city is anything but. Bordered by thriving corporations and well-known shops and restaurants, you'll never run out of things to do within Noblesville's city limits.
